B. GREETINGS FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

The PSLE Written Examinations are finally over and our P6 students will be relieved and may take a slight breather. However, their learning does not just stop there for them. The school has organised programmes to allow them to be fruitfully engaged and continue their journey in learning.

The SA2 will start this month for the other levels from P1 to P5 and it will allow all of us to take stock of our students' learning. We hope parents will be able to coach their children and be well-prepared for the SA2.

C. CONVERSATIONAL CHINESE AND MALAY (BEGINNER) PROGRAMME – P3

(Mrs Leow-Ling Mee Nam, HOD MTL)

To strengthen Singapore's multi-racial compact and to develop 21st century competencies of cross-cultural and communication skills in Concordians, we will be organising the Conversational Chinese and Malay (Beginner) Programme for our P3 students. This programme will enhance interactions and strengthen bonds amongst Concordians of different races, and at the same time, help them acquire the languages that would enable them to operate comfortably with native CL/ML speakers.
