Enjoy your visit at the Mandai Wildlife Reserve!

The varied landscapes of our parks create living environments suitable for a wide range of local wildlife, including the Long-tailed Macaques.

For the welfare of the wild macaques and for your safety, do observe the following guidelines when you encounter them in our parks.

Respect their space and keep a distance

- Give the macaques space, keep a distance.
- If you are taking photos, do so from a safe distance and do not use flash photography.

Do not approach

- Do not stare, chase, touch, or corner the macaques. These may be perceived as threats!
- If you have to cross paths with them, move calmly and avoid making eye contact.

Secure your belongings

- Do not feed the macaques. They have enough food in the wild!
- Keep an eye on your belongings and do not leave them unattended.
- Avoid carrying food and drinks in your hand or in plastic bags. Store them in your bag.

Approach our staff if you need assistance

- If you are approached by a macaque or a troop, please remain calm and seek help from our staff.
