Term 4 Week 3

25th September 2023

Dear Parents,

As PSLE is fast approaching, our graduating cohort is preparing for the last leg of their Primary School journey. In this week's newsletter, parents of the Primary 6 students have left some words of encouragement for them.

To all P6 Concordians, All The Best in your upcoming PSLE!! STRIVE FOR SUCCESS!! Believe in yourself and have self-confidence, you can do it! Stay focussed and don't give up. 😊😊

Parent of Puteri Nur Alesya, 6A

Don't let what you cannot do interfere with what you can do.

Parent of Nur Renny Riana & Nur Resya Riana, 6A

To All P6 Students. All the best in your upcoming PSLE. As parents, we want all of you to success and achieve your dreams.

"Strive For Success".

No matter the outcome, you have done your best. Please be thankful to all your teachers who have been there to guide you.

Parent of Dyan Falisha, 6A

Never give up trying. If you make mistakes, it's okay because we all do. We are human after all. Making mistakes is a great way to learn since you will remember every single one of them and won't repeat them.

Parent of Mohamed Daniel , 6B

The first hurdle is always the hardest. You can do it! Not everyone gets it right the 1st time round. Don't be disheartened and try again! Not giving up is the 1st step to success.

Parent Uzzeil Sulaiman, 6B

Wish your efforts will come through, and this is the time for you to show your hardwork for the past 6 years. All the best to all of you.

Parent of Chong Yee Yao, 6C

Dear P6 Concordians,
You have come thus far. Remember you are capable of more than you know. Have faith and confidence! Don't dream of success, make it happen! Best of luck P6s!

Parent of Chong Zun Wen Kaylen, 6C

You can't go back and change
the beginning, but you can start where you are and change
the ending.

Parent of Javan Tan Wenhao, 6D

Dear P6 students,
It is the time to 'show off' your six years of learning. Ace your PSLE with flying colours and fly into the secondary school of your choice. Believe in yourself and you can make it happen. Give it your best shot and S.H.I.N.E.!!

Parent of Goh Jung Jin Greg, 6D

Dear Primary 6 Students, you all have spent hours and hours in school, at home and tuition centres to study hard for your PSLE. Be calm and do your very best during your Exams. Remember, your parents love and are proud of you, always. This is just the beginning of your long journey in life! Jiayo!! Hwaiting!! Majulah!! Ellam

Nandraga Irukkum!! ❤️ ❤️

Parent of Akmal Akid, 6E

May you all overcome this milestone positively as one of life's small challenge and so long you do your best, that's all that matters.

Parent of Alarique Ang Sheng Jie, 6E

Dear our P6 Concordians! PLSE year is tough and stressful! You've put in so much hard work and effort! Trust me, it will be worth it when you look back. It's the effort that you put in that matters, and the rest are just resultant. JIA YOU!! Just the last bit to go :)

Take care and come to your family for support whenever you feel the need to!

Parent of Titus Soh Yu Miao, 6F

Smooth sea can never make skillful sailor, hence face and overcome the challenges to become one of the winners.

Parent of Farhan Shahul Hameed, 6F

As we head into the last few days of PSLE preparations, we would like our graduating cohort to know that we are extremely proud of them. With a resilient and determined spirit, they have crossed many milestones in their 6 years with us.

We wish our dearest Primary 6 students all the best as their primary school journey draws to a close. We will be here cheering you on!
