Hi, Miss Chang. 对不起, ...

All Parents

It's quiet hours! Parents know that you may not reply until later :)

the materials will be given to them in the first lesson. As enquired by many, you have to provide your own thumb drive for your child but it is not needed until further notice. (Do not get them to bring tomorrow.)

There will be a 30 mins break after the lesson before school starts officially at 11.30am. Please note that all students will not be allowed to leave the school premise during that period of time. Do ensure that extra money/lunch box is given to your child for lunch (unless there are any prior arrangements made with me).

If there are any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me through this platform. Thank you!
